

Feeling Guilty Jehovah Tsidkenu

Have you ever said something or done something for which you felt guilty? When you feel guilty, you need to get to know God as Jehovah Tsidkenu.

“In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell safely; now this is His name by which He will be called: ‘THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.’” (Jeremiah 23:6)

1. Interpretation

This name appears in the prophecy of Jeremiah when the kingdom of Judah was in _____ and _____ decline.

Jeremiah’s ministry took place during the last _____ of Judah’s existence. This period was characterized by _____, _____ and _____.

In Jeremiah 22, God sends the prophet to Shallum, King of Judah to call the nation to _____.

In contrast to the _____ spiritual leaders of His people, God says that He will send _____ to “execute judgment and righteousness in the earth.” (Jeremiah 23:5)

2. Revelations

This name reveals that God is _____.

This name also reveals that the only way we can become righteous is if God _____ our righteousness. (Romans 3:10, 23)

3. Application

Philippians 3:5-9

Matthew 5:6

II Corinthians 5:21

Romans 3:22

Hebrews 10:3, 14

II Corinthians 5:17

I John 1:9