

What Happens When God's Trumpet Sounds Leviticus 23:24-43

Review of the Feasts

Passover — _____ day feast that was a shadow of the _____.

Unleavened Bread — began the _____ Passover and lasted _____ and pictures the outcome of Passover. This feast pictures the believer's life after being saved.

Firstfruits — took place on the day after the _____ following _____.

Therefore, it occurs on the first Sunday of the week of Unleavened Bread. This is the day of the _____ and we celebrate it as _____.

Pentecost — occurs _____ after Firstfruits. It is the day the Holy Spirit came in the New Testament.

1. Feast of Trumpets (Leviticus 23:24)

There is a _____ between Pentecost and Trumpets.

I believe this gap represents the present _____. See Leviticus 23:22 The _____ represent Gentiles!

The first four feasts all take place in a fairly short period of time and deal with what God has _____. The next three, beginning with Trumpets represent what God _____ in the future.

Trumpets occurred on the first day of the _____ (our October). It corresponds to our _____.

The main purpose for blowing the trumpets is found in _____.

I Thessalonians 4:16-17; I Corinthians 15:52

2. Day of Atonement (Leviticus 23:27)

Trumpets occurs on the first day of the seventh month. Day of Atonement comes on the _____ of the same month.

This is the day when all _____ was dealt with. This represents the _____ that will take place after the Rapture.

Revelation 6-20; Revelation 1:7

The Day of Atonement teaches that sin must be _____ and those who do not accept God's provision for sin shall be cut off from among His people (Leviticus 23:29)

Tabernacle #12

3. Feast of Tabernacles (Leviticus 23:34-43)

_____ after The Day of Atonement is the Feast of Tabernacles. In contrast to Atonement, this feast is _____.

John 14:2-3

Revelation 21:1-3