

The Temple, Two Witnesses and the Seventh Trumpet Revelation 11:1-19

The 6th trumpet was the second of three woes mentioned in 8:13. The first woe saw _____ given the key to the _____.
The second woe, the release of _____ and the army of 200 million who had the power to kill _____.

Chapter 10 described the _____.

Chapters 12-22 are a further explanation of what happens in _____.

1. Measuring the Temple (11:1-2)

If you _____ this passage, you create a serious problem. IF the TEMPLE refers to the _____, how is John supposed to measure an invisible body of people?

This is meant to be seen _____. The events described here reinforce the idea that God is not finished with the _____.

Five Temples in Scripture

_____ Temple — I Kings 7

_____ Temple — Ezra 3:12

_____ Temple — John 2:20

Temple of the _____ — Revelation 11:2

Temple of the _____ — Acts 15:16; Ezekiel 40-43

2. The Two Witnesses (11:3-14)

Two witnesses are sent to serve as _____ for 1,260 days (3 1/2 years).

Revelation #15

These witnesses are sent _____, for a _____, and as prophets who _____ and _____.

The witnesses will be _____,
_____, _____,
_____.

In verse 7, we are introduced to the beast from the bottomless pit who _____ the two witnesses. This happens only after they have _____ their testimony.

Verse 14 ends the interlude and the sixth trumpet.

3. The Seventh Trumpet (11:15-19)

Notice the announcement in verse 15. Other events must transpire before this fact is realized, but the victory has already been _____!

Though the earthly temple will be desecrated by the beast, its counterpart in heaven is displayed to reflect God's _____.