

The Mystery of Prophetic History

Daniel 11

In Daniel 11, we get a picture of a whole era of history prophesied. Every detail of this prophecy has come true with the exception of verses 35-45.

Introduction to Chapter 11

Daniel _____ and _____ for 3 weeks. God honored his prayer by sending an angel with an _____. Although it may take time, God _____ answers our prayers.

God unfolds to Daniel the detailed revelations of what would happen to Israel during the next _____.

Kings of Prophecy

Daniel 11 deals with _____

The first prophecy concerns the future of the _____ government.

The prophecy says there would be _____ who would rule Persia and then a _____ who could be more significant than the first three.

The three notable kings after Cyrus were _____, Cambyses, followed by Pseudo-Smerdis, and then Darius Hystapis. The fourth king was _____. He is mentioned in the book of _____ as Ahasuerus.

The second king in Daniel's prophecy shows up _____ later and is described in verse 3. This king is _____.

About 175 BC, _____ appears in fulfillment of Daniel 11:10. He had a very famous daughter by the name of _____.

Daniel #13

Verses 19-20 introduce the next king who was _____.
Verse 34 mentions “a little help” that rises up. This is the

_____.

End Times of Israel Under Antichrist (Daniel 11:35-45)

At this point, _____ ends and _____ begins. The expression “time of the end” (v. 35) leaps forward in prophecy from Antiochus to _____.

From verse 36 to the end of the chapter attention is focused on the end time _____ who will do according to his will.

Paul refers to this passage in predicting the rise of “the man of sin, the son of _____ in II Thessalonians 2:4.

The _____ is described in verses 40-45.

God gave these prophecies of the future to His people as an _____ to faithfulness when the crisis arrived. Prophecy teaches us to _____!