

Creation and Fall of Man

The Bible is God's _____ to man. It contains all the doctrines of God. In the scientific world, the study of man is called _____.

1. The Creation of Man

Man was created by a _____ act of God (Genesis 1:26-27)

The _____ account of the creation of man is in Genesis 1

The _____ account of the creation of man is given in Genesis 2

In Genesis 1:26, man was made in the _____ of God

Image is the _____ or the _____ capacity

Likeness is the _____ or the _____ resemblance

Adam was made in the form and image of Christ — NOT the other way around (Romans 5:14)

Man was created with a _____ nature. He was created with

The body is the means of _____ (Genesis 2:7)

The soul is the means of _____ (Psalm 42:1-6)

The spirit is the means of _____ (Hebrews 12:9; I Corinthians 2:11)

2. Man's Condition Before the Fall

Man could _____ - He had knowledge

Man could _____ - He had the ability to communicate

Man was given _____

Be fruitful and multiply

Be obedient to God

Keep the garden

3. The Fall of Man

The one _____ of God (Genesis 2:17)

Sin entered by one man — _____ (Romans 5:12)

Satan worked on Adam and Eve by casting _____ on God's

Word and appealing to their _____ (Genesis 3:1-5)

The results of the fall were _____ (Genesis 3:7-19)

In Genesis 3:8, we see _____ and God _____

The sin was _____

4. The Fall of All Flesh and The Grace of God

Sin is in the _____ of all humanity (I Corinthians 15:22)

All are born with _____ (Romans 3:23)

We are _____ spiritually until Jesus saves us (Ephesians 2:1)

The _____ of God

Genesis 3:15 — _____

For salvation, Adam had _____ in the promised seed

Jesus was made _____ and took our sins upon Himself on the _____ (I Corinthians 15:45-47)

In order to escape the _____ of sin, we must

_____ God's gift (II Corinthians 5:17; John 3:16; II Timothy 1:9;

John 5:24)